

Plainview Public Library

Reader name: _____ Purple

Reader age: _____

Complete any 12 squares and return sheet to the library. You may choose a new color and keep reading!

Read for one hour	Write a sentence about why someone should read your favorite book	Visit the library!	Read for one hour	Attend a library program	Read a magazine	Read for one hour	Draw and write a comic strip
Read for one hour	Read for one hour	Read a book about your favorite sport	Read a fairy tale	Read for one hour	Make up a new game	Cook using a recipe from a cookbook	Visit the library!
Listen to someone else read	Read a book about a place you would like to visit	Read a poem	Read a graphic novel	Walk or ride your bike to the library!	Read for one hour	Read to a pet or stuffed animal	Read for one hour
Attend a library program	Write a new knock-knock joke	Read for one hour	Visit the library!	Read a book by an author whose last name stars with the letter "M"	Read a book with a dragon in it	Read for one hour	Read for one hour

What is the point of libraries?

Families of all ages are invited to all programs

Wed, June 1 10:30am @ Plainview Library--Storytime

Wed, June 15 10:30am @ Plainview Library--Storytime

Tues, June 7 10:30am @ Wedgewood Park--

Fri, June 17 1:30pm @ Plainview Library--Chione Quintet presents

Z Puppets Rosenschnoz present "Monkey Mind

Shoua and the Northern Lights Dragon—a musical storytime

Pirates Quest for Calm"

Thurs, June 30 6pm @ Eastwood Park--Salsa del Soul concert

Wed, June 8 10:30am @ Plainview Library--Storytime

Wed, July 7 6pm @ Plainview Library--Family Storytime

Thurs, June 9 6pm @ Plainview Library--Family Storytime

Mon, August 1 6pm @ Wedgewood Park--Jolly Pops Concert

